BARRON AND POTTER STAR

Former Wins Both Sprints and Latter Both Hurdles-Trio of Records Smashed.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 16 .- The Yale track team almost ran riot against Harvard in the stadium to-day, winning the annual dual track and field games by a margin of 29 points, the score being 66 to to 3712. At the beginning of the meet Yale took all the places in the mile and all in the high burdles, and capturing the quarter made the meet secure. Yale men own eight of the thirteen first places to-day and this without Cornell being able to win either of the dashes, both of which win either of the dashes, both of which were taken by Capt. Barron of the Har-vard team, although in 10°1-5 second for the 100 and 23 seconds for the furlong. Vals came through before the one.

Yale came through better than she expected. Potter won both of the hurdle races, Jackson of Harvard being shut out in the first heat of the 120 yard high event and getting only a third over the low timbers. Sturgis, Harvard's hammer thrower, failed to qualify, fouling three times, so that Harvard's showing was even peoprer than was looked for.

times, so that Harvard's showing was even poorer than was looked for.

Three dual games records were broken to-day and one was equalled. In the first heat of the 126 hurdles Potter of Yale won in 15 4-5 seconds. At the first a new record of 15 2-5 was given him, but later Referee Sullivan said that only two watches had agreed and Potter's new mark was taken away. The records that went by the board were in the half mile, mile and two mile runs. Brown of Yale won the 880, beating Capper of Harvard by twelve yards and his time being 1 minute 54 seconds, three-nifths of a second better than the dual games record Brown better than the dual games record Brown

And in the two mile Boyd of Harvard again made a record, doing 9 minutes 42 4-5 seconds, which was two and one-fifth seconds faster than Boyd's winning time at last season's dual meeting. The quarter mile run showed Wilkie of Yale to be faster than Bingham of Harvard, the Yale man making the race in the first furlong, in which he led by seven yards, and Bingham being able to cut Wilkie's advantage down to only four yards, coming up the backstretch.

Oliver Johnstone of Harvard was the Crimson's star performer in the field events. He cleared 22 feet 10 inches in the broad jump, but his height of 6 feet in the high jump was not good enough to beat Olear of Yale, who did half an inch better.

Yale took the first two places in the shotput and all three in the hammer. In the pole vault Camp of Harvard won with an even 12 feet. Potter and Barron were the only men that took two first places, both being easily the best men in the hurdles and sories. The summaries: the hurdles and sprints. The summaries:

Before a fair holiday crowd at Washington Park yesinteresting contest by the score of 5 to 3. Three Fingered Brown, the Mound City manager, decided at the last moment to take a day off and sent to the hill in his place a burly southpaw named Keupper, who pitched a very classy game after the first inning.

Bert Maxwell, former Giant, was chiefly responsible for the first inning.

Bert Maxwell, former Giant, was chiefly responsible for the defeat of Bill aboth p Bradley's team. He exploded in the sev-enth inning. Six good hits, pretty well bunched, gleaned four runs off Bert in this section and made certain for Keupper a contest that seemed most anybody's up to that stage. Maxwell, however, had noth-ing to complain of the fortunes of war. He was an extremely fortunate young gentleman to go so far as he did with the count in his favor. His support was fairly brilliant in a number of emergen-cies. The team behind him rose to the occasion when it appeared the pitche was timer to centre for the concluding run after he had falled by inches on a long liner to left that if fair would have been good for three bases, and possibly the cir-cuit. A miss is as good as a mile, but a homer would have tied the game. The

SOMEBODY IS DREAMING

Ban Johnson did not come East for the express purpose of assisting Joseph Learnin in the purchase of the Taylor interests in the Red Sox. The big czar admitted as much yesterday, but was as mysterious about his real purpose as he usually is until such purpose is accomplished. Ban intends to go to Washing ton this afternoon. He became interested in seeing Clark Griffith only after he had been informed that the Federal League might move in the Capital City next year. "Let them come into Washington," said despatch from Cleveland said that the more hasn't secured a site already, none Federal League had closed an option on will be available within the course of a Federal League had closed an option on will b a valuable tract in the heart of the Forest City and that negotiations were concluded in the name of the Ward brothers.

President Frank Farrell of the New Yorks and Ed Barrow, president of the International League, were closeted with Mr. Johnson for several hours Friday night. From the stentorian tones which "I ran say positively," said Robert B. Ward, "that the statement from Cleve-Ward, "that the statement from Cleveland is erroneous. So far as I know absolutely no change in the Federal League circuit is contemplated. Certainly I have no desire to own more than one club in the Federal League. I am opposed to the principles of syndicate baseball. I believe ownership in more than one club by the same person tends to destroy public confidence, which after all is the real backbone of the grand summer sport.

"I know that our firm has been looking for a suitable site in Cleveland, but with no baseball motive. At present we have two baking establishments in that city. One property is leased and we have desired for a long time to purchase some fitting location where we will be provided against any possible difficulties of the future. I do not believe, however, that our agents possibly could have closed any real estate deal without our knowledge. I think perhaps some imaginative person has heard of our business plans and has distorted the facts into the form of a Federal League war scare."

Secretary Walter S. Ward declares that the present roster of the Tip Tops will be maintained throughout the season or infil better material can be dug up to bolister the collective strength of the team. With Manager Bill Bradley there are at present thirty active athletes. In addition there is Joe Quirk, the celebrated trainer, who served as Jimmy McAleer's Man Friday all the time the former president of the Red Sox was trekking around the Ban Johnson circuit.

Thirty-two men form a pretty pretentious aggregation to tote all around the country represented by the Federal League, especially when all railway fares and out of town hotel bills must be bornefrom the exchequer of the home office. But the Ward brothers, according to their young heir and secretary, will spare no expense to give every one who has joined their standard every encouragement to make good.

"We have to be careful," said Walter Ward. "The Federal League is working to the present executive.

We have to be careful, said waiter Ward. "The Federal League is working independently from organized basebail When we release a player we have to release him outright. "Naturally, too, we feel that we owe every one who has come with us every chance of making good. By joining the Federals he puts himself in the bad graces of organized baseball, especially if he has played under the sway of the organization before. But wherever we found it possible we have placed our discards in the minor. we have placed our discards in the minor leagues. More than one minor league manager has been accommodated so far. Of course we have given up nothing we thought might be of any use to us in the near future. We have to be very careful, though, in discarding them, for the reasons I have named. "Manager Bradley finds that his surplus talent is very useful now that he is home for a long stay. He uses his extras for morning practice games. This not only develops the bench warmers, but also benefits the regulars in every department. Our club looked poorly on its return be-cause we didn't have one bit of practice, except what we got in the games, from the time the season opened until we reached Brooklyn. And for one whole week on the road the weather was so bad that none of the men had a baseball in his hand.
